The bass plays a B.

The guitar just plays a G7 here and the bass a D so I wrote G7/D on my chart to cover it nicely on one guitar.
The chords here (G7, G9) reflect the notes in the melody line and are NOT played on the guitar .

mp D Gm D9 D7

These chords definitely have a D bass to them. I chart them that way so they sound good without a bass player. I don't agree with the D9. I really think it's a C/D because I hear a G note in there in addition to the C and E, making it a full C over a D bass. I don't hear the D7 either (just D). And there's a Dsus4 or a Gm/D at the very end just before the next Gm.

Also, the Ebmaj7 and the Dbmaj7 are NOT really played by an instrument and reflect the chords created by the notes of the melody over Eb and Db.

Big mistakes here. This is entirely wrong!
It should read C (major), Fm/C, Bbadd9/C, and C

will no one stay a-wake with me Pet er? john? James?

Solo

Solo

Detailed description: This is the first system of a musical score for 'Jesus Christ Superstar'. It consists of three staves. The top staff is a vocal line in G major (one flat) and 4/4 time, marked 'largo'. It begins with a quarter rest, followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics 'will no one stay a-wake with me' are written below the first four measures, and 'Pet er? john? James?' are written below the next three measures. The middle staff is a piano accompaniment in treble clef, and the bottom staff is in bass clef. Both piano parts feature sustained chords and moving lines that support the vocal melody.

Solo

will none of you wait with me Pet er? John James

Solo

Solo

Detailed description: This is the second system of the musical score, starting at measure 4. It continues the vocal and piano parts from the first system. The lyrics 'will none of you wait with me' are written below the first four measures, and 'Pet er? John James' are written below the next three measures. The musical notation includes various rests, notes, and slurs, indicating a continuous and expressive performance. The piano accompaniment remains consistent in style, providing a harmonic foundation for the vocal line.
